MANY OPINIONS AS TO PAY O NO PAY WHILE ABSENT MILITARY

DUTY ..

Washington, D. C. Aug. 21 .- In sting information as to the attitu of large firms and corporations ward men who join the Nation Guard and who may be absent on 1 portant military duty is set out in annual report by General Greely, w ommanded the northern division d ing the last fiscal year. Inquiries these lines were addressed to the ad tant generals of the states in northern division. To the question to whether members of the Nation Guard who are in the public serv are deprived of any portion of the regular wages while absent on milita duty three states reported "No," se 'No, with exceptions" and two "Ye in part or in whole.

To the question whether it is custom of large firms and corporation o make reductions in wages for tir of necessary absence on importa military duty, eight officers repor "Yes" and four "Yes" with exception

Three officers reported "Yes," the to the inquiry as to whether empl ers are generally 6 sposed to discharge or look upon with disfavor such of neir employes as may be National Buardsmen, when necessarily absent from work on military daty required hy law or competent authority.

Two officers reported "No," three
"No" with exceptions, four "Yes" and hree "Yes" with exceptions, to the militates against him when applying for work. Nine officers reported "Yes' to the question whether there was any difficulty experienced in keeping organizations filled with desirable men. Among the causes for this are set lown influence of labor unions, lack of interest in military affairs, prosperous times and plenty of work, inadequate pay and allowances and inadequate state and national appropria

Several officers reported "Yes" and five "Yes" with exceptions, to question if labor unions oppose cruiting. The remedy suggested was that the latter be educated to a full understanding that the guard should not be looked upon as enemies, but should be given to understand that their common object should be the welfare of the country.
